History of Jefferson Street Music Street

From the 1940's to the early 1960's Jefferson Street was one of America's best known districts of Jazz, Blues and Rhythm and Blues. Famous African-American musicians played repeatedly in many of the clubs on Jefferson Street. Little Richard, Jimi Hendrix, Ray Charles, Fats Domino and Memphis Slim performed here regularly. Nashville artists, many with hit records made this district their home. In the 1960's they started to build the interstate and that started the end of Jefferson Street. Bars & Clubs started to close and shut down.
